HISTORY OF THE SEMINARY

In the year 1809 the proposal to establish a Theological Seminary for the Presbyterian Church was introduced to the General Assembly in the form of an overture from the Presbytery of Philadelphia. The Committee to which the overture was referred recommended that three plans be submitted to the presbyteries: the first, to establish one school in some convenient place near the center of the Church; the second, to establish two schools, one in the North, the other, in the South; the third, to establish a school within the bounds of each of the synods. The reports from the presbyteries, received in 1810, led the General Assembly of that year to decide upon a single school and to appoint a committee to prepare a "Plan for a Theological Seminary," to be reported to the next General Assembly. In 1811 the plan reported was adopted. In 1812 the location of the Seminary was fixed temporarily at Princeton, N.J.; a Board of Directors was elected, and the Rev. Archibald Alexander, D.D., was appointed Professor of Didactic and Polemic Divinity. In 1813 the Rev. Samuel Miller was appointed Professor of Ecclesiastical History and Church Government, and the location at Princeton was made permanent.

The Trustees of the College of New Jersey entered into an agreement with the General Assembly, allowing the use of their buildings to the Seminary students, and offering space on the campus for the erection of any building necessary for the use of the Seminary. They also engaged that, while the Theological Seminary shall remain at Princeton, no professorship of theology shall be established in the College.

The classes were first held in Doctor Alexander's study and later for a time in the College buildings. In 1815 the General Assembly determined to erect a hall which should contain both the lecture room needed and lodgings for the students. The cornerstone was laid in that year, and the building, now known as Alexander Hall, was occupied in the autumn of 1817. It was built upon a tract of land which had been acquired for the use of the Seminary. In 1820 the General Assembly authorized the professors to appoint an Assistant Teacher of the Original Languages of Scripture, and in the same year they appointed to this office Mr. Charles Hodge, a graduate of the Seminary and a licentiate of the Church. Mr. Hodge accepted the appointment and was ordained. In 1822 he was elected by the General Assembly Professor of Oriental and Biblical Literature. In 1824 a charter, obtained from the Legislature of the State of New Jersey, was accepted by the General Assembly, and in accordance with its terms the property and funds of the Seminary were placed in the charge of a Board of Trustees. This act of legislation incorporated the "Trustees of the Theological Seminary of the Presbyterian Church," making this the corporate name of the institution. With this incorporation the Seminary was constituted as at present.

The first session began on the twelfth of August, 1812. Three students matriculated on that day, another in August and five in November. Since then eight thousand six hundred and eighty-five students have been enrolled, coming from all parts of the United States and from many foreign countries. Of these, five hundred and eighty-six have entered upon foreign mission work.

THE DESIGN OF THE SEMINARY

In the Plan of the Seminary, as adopted by the General Assembly, its design is stated in the following paragraphs:

"The General Assembly, after mature deliberation, have resolved, in reliance on the patronage and blessing of the Great Head of the Church, to establish a new Institution, consecrated solely to the education of men for the Gospel ministry, and to be denominated The Theological Seminary of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America. And to the intent that the true design of the founders of this institution may be known to the public, both now and in time to come, and especially that this design may, at all times, be distinctly viewed and sacredly regarded, both by the teachers and the pupils of the Seminary, it is judged proper to make a summary and explicit statement of it.

"It is to form men for the Gospel ministry who shall truly believe, and cordially love, and therefore endeavour to propagate and defend, in its genuineness, simplicity, and fullness, that system of religious belief and practice which is set forth in the Confession of Faith, Catechisms, and Plan of Government and Discipline of the Presbyterian Church; and thus to perpetuate and extend the influence of true evangelical piety and Gospel order.

"It is to provide for the Church an adequate supply and succession of able and faithful ministers of the New Testament; workmen that need not be ashamed, being qualified rightly to divide the word of truth.

"It is to unite in those who shall sustain the ministerial office, religion and literature; that piety of the heart, which is the fruit only of the renewing and sanctifying grace of God, with solid learning: believing that religion without learning, or learning without religion, in the ministers of the Gospel, must ultimately prove injurious to the Church.

"It is to afford more advantages than have hitherto been usually possessed by the ministers of religion in our country, to cultivate both piety and literature in their preparatory course; piety, by placing it in circumstances favourable to its growth, and by cherishing and regulating its ardour; literature, by affording favourable opportunities for its attainment, and by making its possession indispensable.

"It is to provide for the Church men who shall be able to defend her faith against infidels and her doctrine against heretics.

"It is to furnish our congregations with enlightened, humble, zealous, laborious pastors, who shall truly watch for the good of souls, and consider it as their highest honour and happiness to win them to the Saviour, and to build up their several charges in holiness and peace.

"It is to promote harmony and unity of sentiment among the ministers of our Church, by educating a large body of them under the same teachers and in the same course of study.

"It is to lay the foundation of early and lasting friendships, productive of confidence and mutual assistance in after life among the ministers of religion; which experience shows to be conducive not only to personal happiness, but to the perfecting of inquiries, researches and publications advantageous to religion.

"It is to preserve the unity of our Church, by educating her ministers in an enlightened attachment not only to the same doctrines, but to the same plan of government.

"It is to bring to the service of the Church genius and talent, when united with piety, however poor or obscure may be their possessor, by furnishing, as far as possible, the means of education and support without expense to the students.

"It is to found a nursery for missionaries to the heathen, and to such as are destitute of the stated preaching of the Gospel; in which youth may receive that appropriate training which may lay a foundation for their ultimately becoming eminently qualified for missionary work.

"It is, finally, to endeavour to raise up a succession of men, at once qualified for and thoroughly devoted to the work of the Gospel ministry; who, with various endowments, suiting them to different stations in the Church of Christ, may all possess a portion of the spirit of the primitive propagators of the Gospel; prepared to make every sacrifice, to endure every hardship, and to render every service which the promotion of pure and undefiled religion may require."

LOCATION OF THE SEMINARY

The General Assembly, after mature deliberation, selected Princeton as the site of the first Seminary of the Church. Among the reasons that led to this choice was the advantage afforded by proximity to the College of New Jersey, now Princeton University. The theological students have the privileges of the University library; admission to the courses of instruction in the graduate and undergraduate department of the University when duly qualified and upon recommendation by the Faculty of the Seminary; opportunities to hear public addresses by the members of the University Faculty and other distinguished lecturers; and to attend the concerts and musical recitals given under the auspices of the University.

Princeton is in quick and easy communication with New York and Philadelphia, while yet sufficiently remote from these centers to be free from distracting influences.

SEMINARY BUILDINGS

MILLER CHAPEL. The Chapel was erected in 1834. Through the generosity of John C. Green, Esq., of New York, the interior of the building was renovated in the summer of 1874. In 1933 the Chapel was moved to a more central location, was enlarged and restored to its original Colonial simplicity, and a large four-manual Gottfried pipe organ installed. This was made possible by the generosity of a friend of the Seminary.

THE LIBRARY. The Seminary has two library buildings, both of which were erected through the generosity of James Lenox, LL.D., of New York City, the first in 1843 and the second in 1879. A fuller description of their facilities may be found elsewhere in this catalogue.

STUART HALL. This building, erected in 1876, was a gift to the Seminary from Messrs. R. L. and A. Stuart. It affords ample accommodation in the way of lecture rooms, and contains two large auditoriums intended for use at public gatherings of the institution.

DORMITORIES. Alexander Hall, long known as the Old Seminary, was the first building erected by the Presbyterian Church in the United States for seminary purposes. It was first occupied by the students in the autumn of 1817. In it the rooms, whether intended for one occupant or two, have separate studies.

Brown Hall was given by Mrs. Isabella Brown of Baltimore. The cornerstone was laid by the Moderator of the General Assembly on the 21st of May, 1864, and it was occupied in the autumn of 1865. It is a dormitory consisting largely of single rooms.

Hodge Hall, built by money from the bequest of Mrs. Mary Stuart, widow of Mr. Robert L. Stuart, of New York, was completed during the summer of 1893. The rooms are in suites, each study having a separate, connecting bedroom, or, in the few cases where the study is to be shared by two occupants, a separate sleeping room for each.

GYMNASIUM. The Gymnasium, conveniently located, is equipped with modern apparatus. There are tennis courts and an athletic field on the campus.

PAYNE HALL. This hall for the housing of missionaries on furlough was given by Mr. and Mrs. Calvin N. Payne, of Titusville, Pa., in 1922. It is a stone building of fire-proof construction, located on ground donated by Dr. and Mrs. Charles R. Erdman, and contains fully furnished apartments for twelve families. Funds to be used for maintenance were given by several persons at the time of erection. In 1926, just before the death of Mr. Payne, he and Mrs. Payne made provision for an endowment for the building and for the furtherance of missionary education in the Seminary, through the provisions of which the annual rental of apartments to missionaries has been reduced to a nominal sum.

In assigning apartments preference is given to those missionaries who purpose taking a regular course of study in the Seminary in fuller preparation for service on return to their fields. Foreign missionaries of the Presbyterian Church, U. S. A., and, under certain conditions, other missionaries are eligible. Correspondence concerning residence in this hall and applications for apartments should be addressed to the Secretary of the Faculty.

TERMS OF ADMISSION

APPLICATION. A student desiring to enter the Seminary must apply for admission by filing with the Dean of Students a formal application, a copy of which will be sent upon request. The application should be filed as early as may be convenient and not later than August first.

CREDENTIALS. In order to be admitted to matriculation and enrolment as a student in the Seminary, the applicant for admission, must present to the Dean of Students the following credentials:

1. A letter from the pastor or session of the church of which he is a member, stating that he is in full communion with the church, possesses good natural talents, and is of a prudent and discreet deportment. Or, if an ordained minister, a letter from the ecclesiastical body to which he belongs, stating that he is in good and regular standing.

2. A complete college or university transcript indicating the completion of a regular course of academic study and the awarding of a degree.

3. Greek Requirement. All students entering the Junior Class of Princeton Seminary who have had courses in Greek shall be required to take an examination in Greek to demonstrate that they are able to carry on exegetical work in New Testament. This examination will be held on Monday afternoon, September 21, at two o'clock. It will seek to determine the candidate's knowledge of the forms of the Greek declensions and conjugations, his acquaintance with fundamental syntactical constructions, and his ability to translate simple Greek prose. At the examination the student will have a choice between a passage from Xenophon's Anabasis, Book I, and one from the Synoptic Gospels. Students found to be inadequately prepared shall take a course in New Testament Greek during the first semester and may proceed with the course in New Testament Introduction in the second semester. Students entering without any knowledge of Greek must pursue the beginner's course throughout the year.

4. All foreign students seeking admission to the Seminary shall be accredited by some responsible body in their own countries, certifying to such proficiency in the reading, writing and speaking of the English language as will enable the students to do satisfactory work in the Seminary. In the week preceding the Christmas vacation a committee of the Faculty will conduct an examination in English that all foreign students must pass before they are finally admitted to candidacy for any degree.

ADMISSION AD EUNDEM GRADUM. A student who has taken part of the theological course in another approved seminary will be received to the same stage of the course on his presentation of a letter from that seminary certifying to his good standing, stating the courses he has completed, and regularly dismissing him to this Seminary. He must also comply with the terms of admission set forth in the preceding paragraphs; and, if a candidate for the degree of Th.B., he must satisfy the requirements of the Seminary regarding knowledge of the original languages of Scripture.

GRADUATE AND OTHER STUDENTS. A student who has completed the regular course of study in another approved seminary must present complete transcripts of his college and seminary course. If he does not come immediately from a seminary he must secure a letter from a presbytery or other equivalent ecclesiastical body, stating that he is a minister in good and regular standing.

An ordained minister who has not completed the regular course of study in a theological seminary may be admitted to the privileges of the Seminary on the presentation of a letter from a presbytery or other equivalent ecclesiastical body, stating that he is in good and regular standing in his church.

The hospitality of the Seminary may also be extended to accredited persons who desire to pursue special studies.

Ministers of the gospel who desire to attend the Seminary for a longer or shorter period, but who do not wish to undertake regular work, may, if properly accredited, be received as guests and given the privileges of the classrooms and library.

MATRICULATION

Entering students who have presented satisfactory credentials are matriculated by subscribing to the following declaration required by the Plan of the Seminary:

“Deeply impressed with a sense of the importance of improving in knowledge, prudence and piety, in my preparation for the Gospel ministry, I solemnly promise, in a reliance on divine grace, that I will faithfully and diligently attend on all the instructions of this Seminary, and that I will conscientiously and diligently observe all the rules and regulations specified in the Plan for its instruction and government, so far as the same relates to the students; and that I will obey all the lawful requisitions, and readily yield to all the wholesome admonitions of the Professors and Trustees of the Seminary while I shall continue a member of it."

COLLEGIATE PREPARATION

Other degrees than that of Bachelor of Arts, certifying to the completion of an adequate course in liberal learning, are accepted as satisfying the academic requirements for admission to the Seminary; but the classical course of study leading to the degree of Bachelor of Arts is the normal course of preparation for theological study. Special attention should be given to English (composition and literature), philosophy, history, Greek and Latin, psychology and sociology. It is assumed that the student will have a general knowledge of the English Bible.

The appropriate foundations for a minister's later professional studies lie in a broad and comprehensive college education, while the normal place for a minister's professional studies is the theological school.

PROSECUTION OF THE COURSE OF STUDY

1. At the beginning of the year each student must file with the Dean of Students a list of his studies for the year.
2. No student may take more than forty semester hours a year. (A semester hour represents one class period a week for one semester or its equivalent in thesis work.)
3. Elective courses are not open to Juniors taking Hebrew, except the courses in Advanced Greek.
4. Hebrew must be taken in the first year, except in the case of students who are taking New Testament Greek 100A.
5. Juniors required to take Greek 100A may take the middle courses in Public Worship and certain electives.
6. At the end of the first semester the scholastic standing of students with respect to their studies, both prescribed and elective, will be determined by examination or by such methods as the professors may adopt.
7. Credit will be given for equivalent courses in other institutions. Deficiencies must be made up as far as possible, but no student will be granted a degree who lacks the equivalent of the courses in the original languages of Scripture.
8. The mid-year examinations are held in January, and the final examinations in May (see Calendar). Students absent from or conditioned in the final examinations must submit to examination immediately after the opening of the next session.

COURSE OF STUDY FOR THE DEGREE OF BACHELOR OF THEOLOGY

The course of study prescribed for the degree of Th.B. is based upon the outline set forth in the Plan of the Seminary and adopted by the General Assembly and is designed to provide a complete and symmetrical training for the Gospel ministry. The studies are arranged in logical sequence with the following distribution of hours: first year, prescribed, thirty-three; second year, prescribed, nineteen, elective, twelve; third year, prescribed, twelve, elective, twenty.

DEGREE OF MASTER OF THEOLOGY

Students who desire to become candidates for the degree of Master of Theology must apply for admission to graduate study by filing with the Dean of Students a formal application, a copy of which will be sent upon request.

Students who hold the degree of A.B. or its academic equivalent and the degree of Th.B. or its theological equivalent (including knowledge of the original languages of Scripture) from approved institutions may become candidates for the degree of Master of Theology (Th.M.).

COURSE OF STUDY FOR THE DEGREE OF MASTER OF THEOLOGY

Candidates for the degree shall take courses equivalent to twenty-four semester hours. Sixteen of these shall be devoted to a major course of study chosen from the electives listed in one of the following Departments: Biblical Literature, History, Systematic Theology, Practical Theology. Of these sixteen semester hours the equivalent of at least four semester hours shall be devoted to a thesis on some aspect of the candidate's major subject of study.

The eight semester hours of minor studies may be chosen from any electives offered in the Seminary, or six of the eight semester hours may be chosen from courses in Princeton University, subject to its regulations.

In order to receive credit towards the Master's degree, each course must require adequate reading and written work (reports, essays, theses, etc.) followed by a written examination or its equivalent in research.

The list of the candidate's courses shall be filed with the Dean of Students, who will submit it for approval to the professor under whom the candidate is taking most of his major studies.

The candidate must spend a minimum of one year in residence, and must complete his work for the degree within two years after admission to candidacy.

The thesis required of the candidate must be submitted by the first of April in the year in which the candidate expects to receive his degree. It must have special merit, and be approved by two professors.

After the fifteenth of April of the year he submits his thesis, each candidate must pass a special oral examination in his major subject, this examination to be conducted by the chairman of the department, assisted by another member of the Faculty.

On the Wednesday morning preceding Commencement Day all candidates for the Master's degree shall meet with the Faculty for the presentation in very brief outline of their Master's theses.

The candidate must maintain honors standing to receive the degree.

DEGREE OF DOCTOR OF THEOLOGY

The conditions under which an applicant may be admitted to candidacy for the degree are as follows:

Admission to Prospective Candidacy

1. The applicant must file with the Dean of Students a formal application, the form for which will be sent on request. This application shall be made not later than May 31 preceding the year in which the course of study is to begin.
2. The applicant must hold an A.B. degree, or its equivalent, with high standing from an accredited college or university. A transcript of the applicant's course, together with his grades, must accompany the application.
3. The applicant must hold the Th.B. degree, or its equivalent, with high standing from an accredited institution. A transcript of his course, with grades, must also accompany the application.
4. Before actual admission to the institution for study the applicant must satisfactorily pass preliminary examinations in the following:

Biblical Literature—a working knowledge of Hebrew and Greek; Old and New Testament; Biblical Theology.

History—the History of the Church; History of Religions, the Christian Missionary Movement.

Systematic Theology—Apologetics, Dogmatic Theology, and Christian Ethics.

Practical Theology—Homiletics, Christian Education, Pastoral Work and Church Administration.

These examinations will be held in the last week of April preceding the year in which study is begun, or the last week of September of the applicant's first year of study. These examinations shall be oral and written, and the maximum length for each of the four departments shall be four hours.

If all of these conditions (1 to 4 above) are satisfactorily met, the applicant may be admitted as a prospective candidate.

Admission to Full Candidacy

The applicant who has begun his study on admission as a prospective candidate shall not be admitted to full candidacy for the doctor's degree until he has satisfied the Committee on Graduate Study that he has a working knowledge of ecclesiastical Latin, German, and one other modern language besides English. These language examinations should be completed before February of the candidate's first year of resident study.

Conditions Governing the Granting of the Degree

1. There shall be required a minimum of two years' residence. If the candidate has any regular obligation or employment other than his studies for the degree, the period of his study shall be lengthened at the discretion of the Committee on Graduate Study.
2. The candidate shall take courses in two departments other than the department of specialization.
3. The schedule of studies for the candidate shall be arranged by the department in which he specializes and shall be approved by the Committee on Graduate Study, subject to final approval by the Faculty.
4. Before submitting his dissertation, the candidate must pass a comprehensive examination in the field of specialization.
5. The candidate must submit a dissertation in the field of his specialization, which must be approved as a real contribution to the literature of the subject. This dissertation may be presented by February of the third year after the candidate has begun his work for the degree, and must be presented not later than February of the sixth year.
6. Graduate work in accredited institutions may in exceptional cases reduce the amount of time required for the degree. The time allowed for such graduate work shall depend on the nature and quality of the work, and shall be determined by the Committee on Graduate Study.
7. When the candidate shall have met all requirements, the decision as to whether he shall receive his degree shall be made finally by the department of his specialization.
8. The tuition fee for each semester of resident study shall be twenty-five dollars.

RELATIONS WITH PRINCETON UNIVERSITY

Relations of academic reciprocity between the Seminary and Princeton University secure for students of either institution admission to the courses of the other without charge for tuition.

Candidates for the degree of Bachelor of Theology may, with the approval of the Faculty of the Seminary and the Faculty of the University, take certain courses in the University as partial fulfillment of the requirements for this degree.

Candidates for the degree of Master of Theology may, with the approval of the Faculty of the Seminary and the Faculty of the University, take courses not to exceed six semester hours in the University as partial fulfillment of the requirements for this degree.

In view of the academic requirements in both institutions it is not possible for a student in the Seminary to become a candidate for a degree in the University when in candidacy for a degree in the Seminary.

Although the requirements for the degrees of Master of Arts and Doctor of Philosophy in the University are not based upon a system of "credits," work done in graduate courses of the University as partial fulfillment of the requirements for a degree in the Seminary may reduce the amount of study which a student might need to pursue in order to meet the requirements for either of the degrees in the University.

Candidates for the degree of Master of Arts or Doctor of Philosophy in the University may, with the approval of the Faculty of the University and the Faculty of the Seminary, take certain courses in the Seminary as part of their programs of study toward these degrees.

A description of the requirements for advanced degrees in the University and descriptions of the courses are contained in a pamphlet which may be obtained upon application to the Dean of the Graduate School.

THESIS COURSES

The several professors will be pleased to arrange, either with graduate or undergraduate students making their selection of electives, thesis courses on subjects of interest. Courses may be arranged, at the option of the student, to count two hours, or four hours, or more. These courses will be conducted by means of assigned reading, a thesis of appropriate length, with occasional meetings with the professor in charge for discussion, and a final examination. Such thesis courses may be arranged on consultation with the professor.

THE LIBRARY

The Library, established in 1812, offers unusual facilities and resources for the use of theological students and research scholars. It now contains 156,957 bound volumes and 50,005 pamphlets, including valuable portions of the libraries of Dr. Ashbel Green, Professor John Breckinridge, Dr. William Buell Sprague, Mr. Samuel Agnew, Professor J. Addison Alexander, Dr. John M. Krebs, Dr. Alexander Balloch Grosart, Professor William Henry Green, Professor Samuel Miller, Professor Benjamin B. Warfield, and Dr. Louis F. Benson. It currently receives about three hundred periodicals, exclusive of many continuations and publications of learned societies.

Its special collections are of great interest. The Louis F. Benson Collection of Hymnology, numbering over eight thousand volumes, presents superior facilities for the study of all fields of American and foreign hymnology. The Grosart Library of Puritan and Non-Conformist Theology, acquired in 1885, contains about two thousand volumes. The Sprague Collection is an unusually large collection of early American theological pamphlets. Over two thousand volumes and three thousand pamphlets on the Baptist controversy are accessible in the Agnew Collection. The Alumni Alcove, supported entirely by the donations of authors, preserves the published works of the alumni as a perpetual testimony to the influential position of the Seminary in theological scholarship and general literature.

The Library is supported by an annual appropriation from the Gelston-Winthrop fund, and by restricted endowments of eighty-six thousand, one hundred and fifty dollars from Messrs. R. L. and A. Stuart, Mr. John C. Green, the Rev. Samuel M. Hamill, Mrs. R. L. Kennedy, Mary Cheves Dulles, Professor Theodore W. Hunt, Dr. Louis F. Benson, and several alumni.

The Libraries are open on five week-days from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. and from 7 p.m. to 10 p.m., and on Saturdays from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. During vacations they are closed in the evenings and on Saturday afternoons, on legal holidays and on December 24 and 31, and during the first two weeks of August.

The Library staff, in addition to the librarian, consists of Miss Isabelle Stouffer, chief cataloguer, Miss Elizabeth L. Crawford, circulation assistant, Miss Eleanor V. Weld, reference assistant, Miss Harriet L. Worcester and Miss Alice L. Boyd, assistant cataloguers, and Mrs. M. E. Osterhaven, secretary.

The alumni of the Seminary are entitled to borrow books by mail. Further information about this service can be obtained from the Librarian.

In accordance with the terms of the agreement between the Seminary and Princeton University, the students of the Seminary are granted the full use of the University Library.

THE THEOLOGICAL BOOK AGENCY

All text-books used in Seminary courses are available at the Seminary's book room in the basement of Miller Chapel. A large and well-chosen stock of general religious books, both new and used, is carried at all times.

MUSEUM OF RELIGION AND MISSIONS

This collection, located on the third floor of Stuart Hall, has been established through voluntary gifts of objects to furnish illustrative material of practical value in the study of comparative religions, of the history of religion and of the methods and progress of the missionary enterprise. The non-Christian religions are represented by idols from every part of the world, by examples of sacred books in the original text, and the section on "communion with the unseen" includes illustrative material on animism, magic, necromancy, ancestor-worship, sacrifice and prayer. The rosary collection assembled by the Rev. Cornelius H. Patton, D.D., of Boston, is one of the largest of its kind in the world. The Museum is open each afternoon from two to three o'clock.

FELLOWSHIPS

Fellowships have been established in the Seminary for the pursuit of advanced study in theology. In 1879 Mr. George S. Green of Trenton, N.J., founded a Fellowship for the encouragement of advanced study in Old Testament Literature. In 1889 the Alumni of the Seminary contributed a fund for a Fellowship in New Testament studies. In 1891 Mrs. Elizabeth Robertson, of New York City, established the Archibald Robertson Scholarship. In 1900 Professor William Henry Green, D.D., LL.D., by bequest provided a fund for Fellowship purposes. In 1905 by bequest of Mrs. Mary W. Winthrop, of New York City, the Gelston-Winthrop Memorial Fund was created and from this fund an annual appropriation was made by the Trustees for the maintenance of three Fellowships. The Fellowships were reorganized in 1931 by the Trustees of the Seminary and four Fellowships established upon these foundations with an annual honorarium of one thousand dollars each. One of these Fellowships will alternate between Old Testament Literature and Old Testament Biblical Theology; one between New Testament Literature and New Testament Biblical Theology; one between Apologetics and Systematic Theology; and one between Church History and Ecumenics, and Practical Theology.

FELLOWSHIP REGULATIONS

The Fellowships are awarded in accordance with the following rules:

1. In order to become a candidate for a Fellowship a student must be a member of the Senior class who has been in residence in the Seminary as a member of the Middle class, and has maintained during his Middle year an academic standing of first group in the subject in which the Fellowship is offered and of high second group in all his studies of that year. At least four hours of the candidate's elective work shall have been taken in the department in which he seeks a Fellowship. The candidate must give notice of his intention to compete for a Fellowship to the Dean of Students not later than October the fifteenth and receive the Dean's approval.

2. A candidate for a Fellowship must maintain in his Senior year an academic standing of average first group in the subjects he has taken in the field in which the Fellowship is offered and high second group in all his studies of that year. He must present a thesis upon an assigned subject and pass such examination as may be required. A bound copy of the thesis, signed with an assumed name and accompanied by a sealed envelope containing the name of its author, must be delivered at the office of the Dean of Students on or before the first day of April. Subject to the maintenance of the required academic standing, the award of the Fellowship will be made upon the merit of the thesis and of the examination of the candidate. Theses that are accepted will be preserved in the Library.

3. If a Fellowship is not awarded as provided above, the Faculty may upon its own initiative, on recommendation of the Professor in charge of the Fellowship, subject to the terms of the several foundations, by unanimous consent, confer the Fellowship upon a student of the Senior class or upon a Graduate Student.

4. A Fellow shall pursue studies principally in the subject in which his Fellowship has been awarded or conferred. He shall study for a full academic year. This year shall be the next ensuing after his appointment, unless upon written request the Faculty grant permission to postpone study for one, or at the most two years, after which time the award of the Fellowship terminates. A Fellow may pursue his studies either in this Seminary or in some other school of theology, as shall be determined by the Professor in charge of the Fellowship in consultation with the Fellow. The studies of a Fellow shall be submitted for approval to the aforesaid Professor, prosecuted under his direction, and reported to him from time to time as he may direct.

THE FELLOWSHIP IN OLD TESTAMENT

Established on the George S. Green Foundation

In 1942-43 the Fellowship is in Old Testament Literature. The subject of the thesis is: Immortality and the Resurrection in the Old Testament, the Apocrypha and the Pseudepigrapha.

In 1943-44 the Fellowship will be in Old Testament Biblical Theology. The subject of the thesis will be: The Theology of Ezekiel.

THE FELLOWSHIP IN NEW TESTAMENT

Established on the Alumni Foundation, the Archibald Robertson Scholarship and the William Henry Green Foundation

In 1942-43 the Fellowship is in New Testament Biblical Theology. The subject of the thesis is: The Christology of Colossians.

In 1943-44 the Fellowship will be in New Testament Literature. The subject of the thesis will be: Origen as Interpreter of the New Testament.

THE FELLOWSHIP IN APOLOGETICS AND IN SYSTEMATIC THEOLOGY

In 1942-43 the Fellowship is in Apologetics. The subject of the thesis is: The Possibility and Nature of a Christian Philosophy.

In 1943-44 the Fellowship will be in Systematic Theology. The subject of the thesis will be: The Reformed Faith and Church Union.

THE FELLOWSHIP IN CHURCH HISTORY AND ECUMENICS AND IN PRACTICAL THEOLOGY

In 1942-43 the Fellowship is in Practical Theology. The subject of the thesis is: The Preaching of Thomas Chalmers.

In 1943-44 the Fellowship will be in Church History. The subject of the thesis will be: The Main Developments in the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America since 1870.

PRIZES

Six prizes have been established: one in Old Testament Literature, two in New Testament Literature, one in Biblical Theology, one in Systematic Theology, and one in Homiletics. Prizes will be awarded only to students who have completed all the studies of the year creditably, and whose prize essays are of decided merit.

All essays submitted for the prizes must be signed as in the case of fellowship theses and presented to the Dean of Students on or before April 1.

SENIOR PRIZES

The prizes open to competition by members of the graduating class are:

SCRIBNER PRIZES IN NEW TESTAMENT LITERATURE

Messrs. Charles Scribner's Sons offer fifty dollars' worth of their publications to that member of the graduating class who shall prepare the best thesis on an assigned subject in New Testament literature or exegesis. The second and third in merit will each receive ten dollars' worth of their publications.

The theme for 1942-43 is: Exegesis of I Peter 1:3-12; for 1943-44: The Date of the Crucifixion.

THE HUGH DAVIES PRIZE IN HOMILETICS

In 1923 the Synod of Pennsylvania (Welsh), by the gift to the Trustees of the Seminary of five hundred dollars, established the Hugh Davies Fund in memory of the Rev. Hugh Davies (1831-1910), an honored minister and historian of the Calvinistic-Methodist Church in Pennsylvania. The annual interest derived from the fund will be given as a prize to that member of the Senior class whose sermons throughout the year shall be accounted the best in thought, composition and delivery.

MIDDLER PRIZES

Prizes open to competition by members of the Middle class are:

BENJAMIN STANTON PRIZE IN OLD TESTAMENT LITERATURE

In 1890 the Rev. Horace C. Stanton, D.D., an alumnus of the Seminary, founded the Benjamin Stanton prize in memory of his father. Fifty dollars will be awarded for the best thesis on an assigned subject in Old Testament literature or exegesis.

For 1942-43 the theme is: Exegesis of Psalm xlii; for 1943-44: Exegesis of Isaiah, chapter vi.

ROBERT L. MAITLAND PRIZES IN NEW TESTAMENT EXEGESIS

In 1890 Mr. Alexander Maitland, of New York, founded the Robert L. Maitland prizes in memory of his father. One hundred dollars will be given for the best exegesis of a passage in the New Testament, and fifty dollars for the second.

The theme for 1942-43 is: Exegesis of Matthew xvi:13-20; for 1943-44: Exegesis of II Corinthians vii:5-17.

JOHN FINLEY McLAREN PRIZES IN BIBLICAL THEOLOGY

By a gift of Mrs. Archibald Alexander Hodge a prize in Biblical Theology has been established in memory of her father, Dr. John Finley McLaren. The sum of fifty dollars will be awarded for the best thesis on an assigned subject in Biblical Theology; and the sum of twenty-five dollars for the second best thesis.

The theme for 1942-43 is: Political Authority, Romans xiii:1-7; for 1943-44: The Mosaic Covenant.

ARCHIBALD ALEXANDER HODGE PRIZE IN SYSTEMATIC THEOLOGY

By a gift Mrs. A. A. Hodge established in 1907 a prize of one thousand dollars in Systematic Theology in memory of her husband, the Rev. Professor Archibald Alexander Hodge, D.D., LL.D. The annual interest derived from this fund will be awarded for the best thesis on an assigned subject in Systematic Theology.

The theme for 1942-43 is: The Exaltation of Jesus Christ; for 1943-44: The Eschatology of the Reformed Faith.

SPECIAL LECTURES

Two lectureships have been endowed which, through the publication of the lectures as delivered or in expanded form, have been productive of a considerable body of theological and missionary literature.

An appropriation is made also from the Gelston-Winthrop Fund to provide occasional sermons and lectures.

THE STONE LECTURESHIP

In 1871, Levi P. Stone, Esq., of Orange, N.J., a Director and also a Trustee of the Seminary, created the foundation for a lectureship which, in accordance with his direction, has been applied annually since 1883 to the payment of a lecturer, chosen by the Faculty of the Seminary, who delivers a course of lectures upon some topic kindred to theological studies. In the years 1903 and 1906 the endowment was increased through the generosity of Mr. Stone's sisters.

THE STUDENTS' LECTURESHIP ON MISSIONS

The Students' Course of Lectures on Foreign Missions had its inception in the minds of the undergraduates of the Seminary, and its endowment was secured largely by their efforts, liberally supported by the Rev. James S. Dennis, D.D. It was established in 1893, and provides for an annual course of lectures on some topic connected with foreign missions of practical importance to those looking forward to missionary work.

RELIGIOUS EXERCISES

The Seminary meets four days a week for morning prayers in the Chapel.

Two special days were devoted last year to the things of the spirit, during which all classes were suspended. On October 22, just as the Seminary year was getting under way, Faculty and students engaged in a special Day of Prayer and Intercession. Prayer was made the special subject of meditation, while intercession was engaged in for special groups and areas of human life in this country and across the world. A Day of Convocation was held on February 4, under the leadership of Dr. Harris Elliott Kirk of Baltimore. This was a day of intellectual and spiritual stimulus under the leadership of one of the most outstanding of America's ministers.

Various meetings for worship and discussion are maintained by the students, either as a body or by each class separately. On Tuesday evening a meeting for devotion and for instruction in general lines of Christian activity is held by the students at which, on invitation of the Faculty or by the students with the approval of the Faculty, addresses are delivered by men prominent in religious work.

During the session of 1941-42, on invitation of the Faculty, the following preached in Miller Chapel:

The Rev. Herbert Booth Smith, D.D., Moderator of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, U.S.A., pastor of Immanuel Church, Los Angeles.

The Rev. Charles E. Diehl, D.D., Moderator of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, U.S., President of Southwestern, Memphis, Tenn.

The Rev. Clarence Edward Macartney, D.D., pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, Pittsburgh, Pa.

The Rev. Henry Sloane Coffin, D.D., President of Union Theological Seminary, New York City.

Opportunities for active usefulness and observation of pastoral life are afforded in Princeton and its vicinity. A large number of students regularly engage in the conduct of religious meetings, in Sunday School instruction, and in other kinds of Christian work. No member of the Junior Class, however, is permitted to hold a regular preaching engagement.

THE STUDENT ASSOCIATION

Every regularly enrolled student shall be considered a member of the Student Association of the Seminary.

The governing body of the Association is the Student Council composed of the Association officers; the chairmen of the committees—religious activities, missionary, deputation, social, athletic, publicity; the presidents of the Junior, Middle and Senior classes and a representative of the Graduate Students; and the president of each eating club.

The objects of the Association are: "To develop the spiritual, intellectual, physical and social life of the students of the Seminary through a unified program of campus activities. To promote mutual acquaintance and Christian fellowship among the students in the highest and best interests of the entire student body. To deepen harmonious relations with the Faculty and Administration, by means of cooperation in the Seminary program and the proper presentation of student problems and opinions to Seminary authorities. To provide opportunities for the practical expression of the Christian religion in social service in Princeton and vicinity. To foster sympathetic understanding between the student bodies of the Seminary and Princeton University. To bind the Student Association more closely to the work of the World's Student Christian Federation, through the Interseminary Movement and other student organizations. To stimulate interest in and support of the missionary and ecumenical aspects of the Church of Christ.

Under the auspices of the Student Association the following speakers delivered addresses in 1941-42:

Mr. John Ritchie of the American Bible Society, Lima, Peru, on "Missions in Peru."

Dr. Frank Laubach of the Philippine Islands on "The Game of Minutes."

Dr. John Van Ess of Arabia on "The Transfiguration."

Dr. Samuel Rizzo, pastor of St. Paul's Presbyterian Church, Newark, New Jersey, on "Missions in Brazil."

Dame Christabel Pankhurst, formerly woman suffragist leader in England, on "Prophecy."

Dr. Otis C. Rice, Episcopal Rector at St. Luke's Hospital, New York City, on "The Minister in the Hospital."

Mr. Tracy Strong, General Secretary, Y.M.C.A., Geneva, Switzerland, on "The Role of the Prisoner of War."

Mr. James Myers, Industrial Secretary of the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America on "The Church and Organized Labor."

The Rev. Stewart M. Robinson, D.D., pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church, Elizabeth, N.J., on "The Army Chaplaincy."

Captain Robert D. Workman, Chief Chaplain, U.S. Navy, on "The Navy Chaplaincy."

ROOMS

The rooms in the several dormitories are furnished with bedstead, mattress, pillows, bureau, chairs, table, mirrors, bookcase, floor rug, and either a clothespress or a closet. Bed linen and blankets for a single bed and towels must be provided by the students themselves. Unless married the student is expected to room in one of the dormitories.

The drawing for the choice of rooms in the dormitories takes place at 3 p.m. on the first day of the session.

EXPENSES

While it is not the policy of this Seminary to solicit students, and while, in the interests of the Church and its ministry, a rigorous, selective process is exercised in the acceptance of those who apply for admission, the Seminary is prepared to give the utmost support in its power to students duly admitted who may yet lack the necessary resources to pursue theological studies without financial assistance.

Prospective candidates for admission should also have in mind that there are a number of ways in which a student may earn part of his support during his life in Seminary. Some of these ways are: student charges (not open to Juniors), occasional preaching, service in the cooperative clubs, work in the library and on the grounds.

While a student's expenses in the Seminary will naturally vary to some extent according to his personal habits, the following estimate is given of an average annual budget:

Room	$100.00
Board (33 weeks in a student club)	247.50
Fees:
Tuition	50.00
Medical	5.00
Student Association	2.00
Books	25.00
Laundry	25.00
Incidentals	25.00
TOTAL	$479.50

The regular tuition fee is fifty dollars per year, but in the case of Graduate Students who are not candidates for a degree, a tuition fee of ten dollars is charged for the first course and five dollars for each additional course taken in the same year. Candidates for the Th.M. degree who take two years instead of one are charged $37.50 per year for tuition.

SCHOLARSHIPS

The Seminary has funds, contributed by generous friends, out of which it is possible to grant scholarships of varying amounts to worthy students requiring some aid to assist them in meeting their expenses. Students applying for these scholarships are asked to submit to the President of the Seminary an estimated budget, within ten days after matriculation. Final action will be taken as to the amount of the scholarship granted on the basis of all the data presented.

Presbyterian Board of Christian Education Scholarships

Presbyterian students needing aid should apply first to the Board of Christian Education through their presbyteries. If the Board scholarship should prove insufficient, application should be made for special consideration from the scholarship funds of the Seminary.

Students receiving financial aid from the Board of Christian Education are obliged to engage in an approved project of Christian work. This project must be carried on during the school year. Juniors are not permitted to hold regular student charges. Extra-curriculum work must not jeopardize the academic standing of the student. Students engaging in heavy schedules of outside work must arrange to devote four years to their Seminary training.

Scholarships for Graduate Study

Six scholarships of not more than five hundred dollars each will be awarded to outstanding students looking forward to graduate study in the Seminary, whether for the degree of Master of Theology, or of Doctor of Theology. These scholarships may be applied for by theological graduates irrespective of their seminary, denomination or nationality. Application for a graduate scholarship should be made to the Committee on Graduate Study, through the Dean of students.

DEPARTMENT OF FIELD WORK

The Seminary established during the academic year 1941-42 a Department of Field Work under a special Supervisor, Dr. J. Christy Wilson. This department assumes responsibility for assigning students to positions in which, in addition to obtaining practical experience in Christian work under proper supervision, they will receive in many instances some financial remuneration to help them cover their Seminary expenses.

In this way many students render service and obtain experience as student pastors, supply preachers, pastors' assistants, leaders in Christian Education, members of Gospel Teams, workers in city missions or in social service, and as members of the Seminary Choir. The department also encourages individual student initiative in securing positions and is glad to cooperate in the supervision of work thus obtained.

The Supervisor of Field Work directs in addition the Church Participation required of those who receive service loans from the Board of Christian Education.

Care is exercised that field work shall not interfere with the regular course of study nor with the maintenance by the students concerned of satisfactory academic standing.

Each student after his application for admission to the Seminary has been approved will indicate, on a blank specially provided, whether or not he desires to engage in Field Work.

SEMINARY CHOIR

The Seminary has a student Choir composed of thirty members under the direction of Dr. David Hugh Jones. The Choir participates in the Seminary morning chapel services and also sings on special occasions.

Each Sunday of the academic year the Choir conducts worship services in different churches. At these services brief Christian messages are given by two of the student members and by Dr. Henry Seymour Brown, Vice-President of the Seminary. By these visits congregations become acquainted with the Seminary; while the students come to know different types of churches in their actual operation. By the end of the academic year 1941-42, the Choir had visited two hundred and eighty different churches in Connecticut, Delaware, District of Columbia, Maryland, New Jersey, New York and Pennsylvania.

CARE OF HEALTH

In 1893 the Rev. William Lewis Moore of New York City and Mrs. Matthew Baird of Philadelphia, by gift of $3,750.00 established an endowment in the University Infirmary for the benefit of the Seminary in memory of William Lewis Moore, Jr.; and in 1923 Mr. E. Francis Hyde of New York City, made a contribution of $25,000 on behalf of the Seminary towards the erection of the new Infirmary. The Seminary by an annual contribution toward the maintenance of the Infirmary has also assumed its share in the cost of operation so that students of the Seminary may use the facilities of the Infirmary jointly with the students of the University upon the following terms which are prescribed by the University.

Every student who becomes ill must report at once to the Infirmary for examination by a staff physician. If taken ill in his room and unable to go to the Infirmary, a physician at the Infirmary should be notified immediately.

If special nurses are required they will be procured at the direction of the Medical Staff and controlled by the infirmarian and an extra charge will be made to the patient. A charge for special nursing is made for all contagious diseases. When one nurse takes care of more than two patients isolated for the same disease the nursing charges will be pro-rated.

When a student is confined to the Infirmary less than one week no charge is made for board. When he is in the Infirmary one week or more a charge is made at the rate of $8.50 per week.

REPORTS TO PRESBYTERIES

Annual reports of attendance and scholarship are sent to Presbyteries regarding students under their care.

THE ACADEMIC YEAR

The Seminary Commencement is on the Tuesday before the third Thursday in May and the opening of the Seminary thirty-five weeks in advance of said Tuesday.

The drawing for rooms by newly matriculated students takes place in Stuart Hall at 3 o'clock in the afternoon of the first day of the session. The opening address is delivered in Miller Chapel at 11 o'clock in the forenoon of the following day.

The Board of Trustees holds two stated meetings each year: one on the Monday preceding the third Thursday of May, which shall be the annual meeting, and one on the second Tuesday in October.

The sermon at the close of the session is preached by the President of the Seminary. At the same service the sacrament of the Lord's Supper is administered.

VACATIONS

The summer vacation gives to students a suitable opportunity for engaging in preaching and in other religious work under the direction of their pastors, presbyteries, or the Boards of the Church. Such work furnishes an important supplement to the training of the Seminary, affording experience and familiarity with the active duties of the ministry, which will be invaluable as a part of the preparation for the sacred office.

A recess of two weeks is also taken at the Christmas season, and a brief recess at Easter.

GIFTS AND BEQUESTS TO THE SEMINARY

The corporate name of the Seminary is the "Trustees of the Theological Seminary of the Presbyterian Church," at Princeton, N.J. This name and description should be used in all legal documents. Gifts, devises and bequests may, at the pleasure of the donors, be directed to the Permanent Fund, which is for the support of the professors; to the Education Fund, which is for the aid of needy students; to the Contingent Fund, which is for defraying the general expenses of the institution; or to any other important object connected with the Seminary. The sum of $2,500 or $3,000 will endow a scholarship.

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION OF THE SEMINARY

The Alumni Association of the Seminary holds its annual meeting in connection with the alumni dinner at Commencement.

The officers of the Association for the present year are as follows: President, The Rev. George H. Talbott, D.D., '23, of Passaic, N.J.; Vice-President, The Rev. Hunter Bryson Blakely, Jr., D.D., of Charlotte, N.C.; Treasurer, The Rev. Charles R. Erdman, D.D., '91, of Princeton, N.J.; Secretary, The Rev. Frederick Schweitzer, D.D., '19, of Ridley Park, Pa.

THE PRINCETON SEMINARY BULLETIN

This publication is issued four times a year. Nos. 1 and 4, appearing in the spring and winter, are news numbers designed to keep the Alumni and friends of the Seminary informed of its life and work. No. 2, appearing in the summer, is the Bulletin of Courses, and No. 3, issued in November, the Annual Catalogue. Copies may be obtained without charge, on application to the Dean of Students.
